OLOTH VISION STATEMENT

The OLOTH Family is committed to live out this Vision – At Our Lady of the Hills Catholic Family, our vision is to be a vibrant community that radiates love and compassion, grounded in prayer, and guided by the Holy Spirit. We strive to be a beacon of hope and refuge for all who seek God's Grace, welcoming all with open hearts and unwavering faith in Jesus.

"Realize it, my brethren; – everyone who breathes, high and low, educated and ignorant, young and old, man and woman, has a mission, has a work. We are not sent into this world for nothing; we are not born at random; . . . God sees every one of us; He creates every soul, He lodges it in the body, one by one, for a purpose. He needs, He designs to need, every one of us. He has an end for each of us; we are all equal in His sight, and we are placed in our different ranks and stations, not to get what we can out of them for ourselves, but to labor in them for Him. As Christ has His work, we too have ours; as He rejoiced to do His work, we must rejoice in ours also." – St. John Henry Newman

ST. MARY CHURCH BINGO

* Volunteers Needed for Bingo – Bingo teams are short a few people. We really need help! Even if you can only work before Bingo starts (5:30-7:00 p.m.) that would be great. This year, we as a parish community are going to make a special effort to invite Catholics who do not attend church regularly to come back to Mass. We have designated Sunday, November 24, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, as Together Sunday. We ask each of you to assist! Please prayerfully consider one person who you can personally invite back to Mass, pray for that person, and then invite him or her to join us for Mass on Sunday, November 24.

We all have Catholic friends, family members, neighbors, or coworkers who have become disengaged from the practice of their faith. Many of them may just be waiting for a personal invitation back to regular attendance at Mass. Invite one Catholic back to Mass on Sunday, November 24, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

Worship is better together, and a simple invitation could be life-changing.

OCTOBER CLERGY COMMUNICATIONS

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK NOVEMBER 3-9, 2024 – A CALL TO SUPPORT AND NURTURE SPIRITUAL JOURNEYS – We share a collective responsibility to encourage and nurture vocations to the priesthood and consecrated religious life. Each Catholic should ask themselves: What is my role in promoting vocations? Witness to my own vocation? Share my story? You could invite a consecrated religious to dinner to give their testimony to your family; attend a holy hour to pray for vocations; or nurture young people on their spiritual journey and invite them to reflect: Have you ever felt a gentle tug at your heart, a quiet whisper calling you to a life of deeper service? As we observe National Vocations Awareness Week 2024, let us embrace our role in this divine tapestry. By encouraging and supporting vocations, we not only contribute to the future vitality of the Church but also contribute to a world imbued with greater faith, hope, and love. If you or someone you know is discerning a call to the priesthood or consecrated religious life, reach out for guidance. For more information about Catholic vocations, contact Maria Reinagel, Office for Consecrated Life, at mreinagel@catholicaoc.org.

BEHOLD – NOVEMBER 22, 2024 & MARCH 21, 2025 – Behold is an evening of Adoration, worship, and fellowship for the entire young adult community, hosted in partnership with Mount St. Mary's Seminary & School of Theology seminarians. Behold will next be held 7:00 p.m.-11:00 p.m. at Our Lady of the Valley Parish (1109 Church Street, Reading, OH 45215) on November 22, 2024, and at St. Monica-St. George Parish (328 West McMillian, Cincinnati, OH 45219) on March 21, 2025. See more information and download the flyer at queencitycatholic.org/behold-event.

OUR EUCHARISTIC MISSION IN A POLARIZED WORLD SERIES – FINAL PRESENTATION – Join us on Thursday, October 24, 7:00 p.m. at St. Maximilian Kolbe in Hamilton Township in person or on Zoom at <https://zoom.us/j/99177580089> | Meeting ID: 991 7758 0089 | Dial in: 312-626-6799. We are living in a polarized and divided nation, especially along political lines. The Eucharist can offer healing in our families and communities. Based on his book The Church's Mission in a Polarized World, Fr. Aaron Wessman, Glenmary Home Missioner, will give the last presentation in his Polarization and the Eucharist series called Polarized Despair or Eucharistic Hope. This series occurs once a month from May-October at different parishes around Cincinnati and Dayton. For more information, contact Jillian Foster at jfoster@catholicaoc.org or check out www.catholicaoc.org/faithfulcitizenship.

FORMATION & TRAINING FOR EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION – Are you interested in becoming an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion to serve at Mass or to the sick, hospitalized, or homebound? Formation and training will be offered by the archdiocese in the coming months in Cincinnati, Dayton, and online. Learn more and sign up at www.catholicaoc.org/worship.

MEN INQUIRING ABOUT THE PERMANENT DIACONATE – Any man who may be discerning a possible vocation to serve the Church as a Permanent Deacon should contact Deacon Mark Machuga, Director of the Office of the Diaconate, to discuss the discernment process, prerequisites and the formation cycle. Deacon Mark can be reached at 513-263-6641 or deaconoffice@catholicaoc.org.

LIVE THE GOSPEL OF LIFE

"to imitate Christ and follow in his footsteps"

The Gospel of Life 51

Twenty-five years ago, Pope St. John Paul II wrote that the Gospel of life is at the heart of Jesus' saving message to the world (Evangelium vitae 1). In taking on human flesh, dwelling among us, and sacrificing his very life for our redemption, Christ reveals the profound dignity of every human person. This God-given dignity does not change with our stage of life, abilities, level of independence, or any other varying circumstance.

Rather, it is rooted in the permanent fact that each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, created to share in the very life of God himself. The human person is a "manifestation of God in the world, a sign of his presence, a trace of his glory" (EV 34). And we must reflect this truth in how we act and how we treat one another.

The truth of the Gospel of life is at the foundation of who we are as followers of Christ. In his earthly life, Jesus provided the perfect model for how we are to love our neighbor and live out the Gospel call: "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me" (Mt. 25:40).

Jesus calls each of us to "care for the other as a person for whom God has made us responsible" (EV 87). The Gospel of life is intrinsic to the whole Christian life and foundational to the decisions we make on a daily basis. For, "the Gospel of God's love for man, the Gospel of the dignity of the person and the Gospel of life are a single and indivisible Gospel" (EV 2, emphasis added).

In his encyclical on the Gospel of life, Pope St. John Paul II recognizes the full range of threats against human life, from poverty and malnutrition to murder and war. He places particular emphasis, however, on threats to life at its beginning and end—precisely when it is most in need of protection. In modern times, children in their mothers' wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the "least of these" in our world's estimation. Practices such as abortion and assisted suicide tragically reject the truth that human life is always to be cherished and defended with loving concern.

As the Church celebrates the 25th anniversary of Pope St. John Paul II's prophetic encyclical, let us reflect on how we personally live out the Gospel: Do I talk about and act towards others as I would talk about and treat Jesus himself? Do I inform myself of the Church's teachings and engage in the civic arena as first a follower of Christ? Do I support and advocate for laws and policies that protect and defend human life? Do I help pregnant and parenting mothers in need? Am I ready to support a loved one nearing death?

Through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, may Our Lord grant us the grace to truly and courageously live his Gospel of life.

READINGS

FIRST READING
A reading from the Book from the Prophet Isaiah
The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity.
If he gives his life as an offering for sin,
he shall see his descendants in a long life,
and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him.
Because of his affliction
he shall see the light in fullness of days;
Through his suffering, my servant shall justify many,
and their guilt he shall bear.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

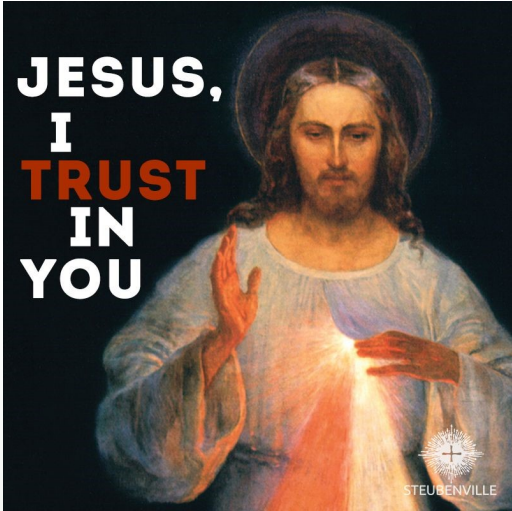

Ps 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 27

R. (22) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.
Upright is the word of the LORD,
and all his works are trustworthy.
He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.
See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him,
upon those who hope for his kindness,
to deliver them from death
and preserve them in spite of famine.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.
Our soul waits for the LORD,
who is our help and our shield.
May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

SECOND READING
Heb 4:14-16
Let us confidently approach the throne of grace.
A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews
Brothers and sisters:
Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens,
Jesus, the Son of God,
let us hold fast to our confession.
For we do not have a high priest
who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses,
but one who has similarly been tested in every way,
yet without sin.
So let us confidently approach the throne of grace
to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.
