What is the Green Scapular?

It's a sacramental for those in need of conversion or healing.

Our Lady knows how hard we pray for our loved ones who have left the Faith. She knows how much we suffer alongside our friends and family who are dealing with physical or emotional afflictions. She also knows that people in need of conversion are often closed to our attempts to lead them to the truth. In 1840, she brought us a simple and powerful devotion to her Immaculate Heart, a devotion designed for such difficult (and delicate) situations. On the Feast of her Nativity, September 8th, 1840, she appeared to Sister Justine Bisqueyburu in Paris. Sister Justine was a Daughter of Charity, the same order as St. Catherine Labouré who had received the Miraculous Medal just ten years earlier. Our Lady appeared with her Immaculate Heart in her right hand and a scapular in her left. The scapular was really a cloth medallion rather than a true scapular, since it only had one piece of cloth. It depicted Our Lady on one side—her flaming Heart in her hands—and on the other, her Heart, pierced and flaming, rays coming forth from it, and a cross surmounting it. Around her Heart are the words: "Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us, now and at the hour of our death." An interior voice told Sister Justine that God wished to establish in the world a greater and more tender devotion to the Immaculate Heart. Graces of conversion would abound for those who were devoted to her under this title and using the image Sister Justine saw. Since it is not a form of a religious habit like other scapulars, there is no enrollment process—it need only be blessed by a priest. The person needing healing or conversion should wear it and say the above-quoted prayer to the Immaculate Heart every day. Our Lady also explained that if the person in need is unable or unwilling to wear it, you can slip it—unbeknownst to them—into their belongings or home or work environment! (A wise Mother indeed!) If (as in the case of someone unwilling to wear it) the intended wearer cannot or will not say the prayer, you can pray it for them.

Since the apparition, the Green Scapular has become famous for the conversions and healings Our Lady has affected through it. Some of the most common types of miracles associated with it include healings of people on the brink of death or suicide, sudden wisdom and understanding in the midst of dangerous relationships or behaviors, and, most importantly, quiet or drastic changes of heart which led people to (or back to) the Catholic Church.

If you have a friend or family member in need of spiritual conversion, enlightenment, or any kind of healing, place them in the safe haven of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The Green Scapular is Our Lady's special means of rescuing these souls—even when they don't want to be rescued.

SERMON ON MARK 9:43-48

If I had to cut off body parts that cause me to sin, there would be nothing left of me. However, keep the knife in the drawer because Jesus is speaking symbolically. Each body part represents stumbling blocks that keep you from God. The hand refers to doing the sin that God doesn't want you to do. The foot refers to walking into the temptation that will cause you to sin. The eye looks at the temptation that causes the foot to lead you there so the hand can do the evil deed. Jesus taught us to pray in the Our Father, "Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil."

The devil is always laying traps to keep you from God. God said we should pray for sinners "and that they will come to their senses and escape from the trap of the devil, who has taken them captive to do his will." (2 Timothy 2:26) The devil puts stumbling blocks in our journey to God. What is the biggest snare the devil lays?

The biggest one I see in our country today may surprise you. It is one of the seven deadly sins called "sloth". It may surprise you because we think of sloth as "laziness" which is doing nothing. Yet Americans are very busy people. We fill our lives with a lot of work and obligations. I talk with young parents who are "burned out." Both Mom and Dad have to work to make ends meet. After work, they need to feed the kids, clean the house, wash the clothes, drive them to after-school activities and help with the homework. One mother told me, "At the end of the day, I have only twenty minutes to talk with my husband before we fall asleep exhausted. Then it all starts again when we awake."

All this "busyness" can be a stumbling block in the spiritual life. It can lead to the devil's trap called in the Greek "acedia" which means "lack of care." There is no time for God in all this busyness. No time to care for prayer or worshipping God. How many cannot go to church because sports are now played on Sunday?

The physical life needs air, sleep, food, water, clothing and shelter. Take these away and you die. The spiritual life is a life lived in and with God. You keep it alive by connecting with God through daily prayer, going to church to hear God's Word speak to you and feed you with His Presence in Holy Communion.

I laugh when I think about all the batteries I need to charge every day. My Apple 7 watch, my iPhone 15 Pro, my left hearing aid and my right hearing aid. I can't function right if these go dead. I recharge my spiritual life by connecting with Jesus throughout the day. I start my day by asking Jesus, "who do you want me to love today and how should I do it?" Then in the evening I make an examination to thank God for helping me do His will and ask forgiveness where I fell short. Before going to bed, I tell God how blessed I am to have His love in my life. Then the cats jump in bed with me and we call it a day.

The best way to deal with the problems and trials in the physical life is to ground yourself spiritually in Jesus. When my spiritual life is fully charged, Jesus gives me peace in everything. I find comfort in Isaiah 41:10 where God says, "Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand."

I know that God's hand will strengthen my hand to do good. Jesus will help me see with my eyes what good He wants me to do. He will guide my feet on the right path.

Blessings...Fr. Mike
